Catholic Schools Week

January 29 - February 4.

This is a fun week at our school to celebrate our Catholic school and all Catholic schools! We will have a week of special dress up days to celebrate! If your child chooses NOT to dress up for the specific day, then they are expected to wear their uniform to school. Please see the list of days in the flyer in the newsletter today.

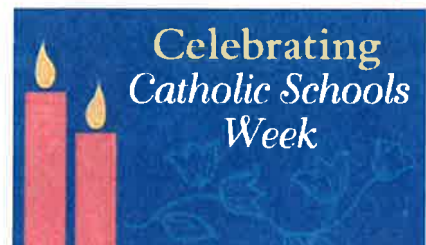

There are lots of exciting things happening this week!

Join in the FUN!

Friendship Luncheon

Thursday, February 2nd, 11:30 am

Last week a reservation form came home for the Friendship Luncheon. We need your reservation form returned to school by January 26th in order to reserve your seat, order enough food, and be sure each student has a special someone to eat their lunch with on this day! A special someone might be a grandparent, neighbor, nanny, aunt or uncle. There is enough room in our gym for 2 guests per family.

Please return your form ASAP to the school office.
