CARMELITE CORNER OF THE OLYMPICS HOLY EXAMPLE OF THE MONTH

Venerable John of Saint Samson was born in 1571 in France into a middle-class family.

He lost his sight at the age of three after contracting smallpox. Tragically, when he was ten, his parents died, leaving him orphaned. Through the kindness of others, he was educated. He showed a great gift for music. A Carmelite monastery boarded him in exchange for music lessons.

He later petitioned to join the Carmelite Order as a lay brother and was professed at age 35. Exceedingly holy, John became the mystical heart of a major reform in the Carmelite Order, giving profound spiritual direction to many, including the local bishop. He was also known to exercise the supernatural gifts of healing and discernment. When he died, after much suffering, his last words were: "I have been crucified with Christ."

Words of wisdom: "The worst of all human miseries is to not know God, to not feel Him, to not desire Him, and to not taste Him." — John of St. Samson, O.Carm

WHAT IS THE DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE AND DEVOTION?

The message of The Divine Mercy is simple: God loves us – all of us. He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy.

The Divine Mercy message is one we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC:

A - Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.

B - Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.

C - Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

This message and devotion to Jesus as The Divine Mercy is based on the writings of St. Faustina Kowalska, an uneducated Polish nun who, in obedience to her spiritual director, wrote a 600 pg. diary to record the revelations she received about God's mercy. Even before her death in 1938, devotion to The Divine Mercy had begun to spread.

The message and devotional practices proposed in her diary and detailed at thedivinemercy.org and in publications of the Marians of the Immaculate Conception are completely in accordance with the teachings of Church and are firmly rooted in the Gospel message of our Merciful Savior. Properly understood and implemented, they will help us grow as genuine followers of Christ.

Spend time to learn more about the mercy of God, learn to trust in Jesus, and live your life as merciful to others, as Christ is merciful to you.

For a full understanding of Divine Mercy, we recommend Divine Mercy Message and Devotion by Fr. Seraphim Michalenko, MIC.
