This WeekSUNDAY, FEBRUARY 1.....ST | SOCIAL HOUR | After 11:00 AM MASSSUNDAY, FEBRUARY 8.....ST | SOCIAL HOUR | After 11:00 AM MASSHERMITAGE | From the desk of Fr. Ed

When Jesus saw the crowds, He went up the mountain...

To hear and embrace the Beatitudes that Jesus teaches in this Gospel, we must follow Him up the mountain, we must make a little effort. It means moving out of my comfort zone. It means moving towards someone else, someone else who is the solution to all my problems. It means a letting go from all my attachments and fears.

These next two weeks I'll be at Marymount Hermitage on retreat. It's a beautiful place that I've been visiting for the last 30 years. You can see more at:

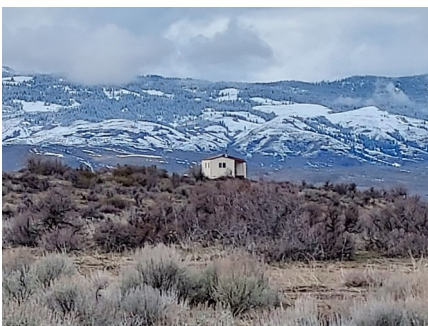

<http://www.marymount-hermitage.org/>.

Hosea prophesizes, "Therefore, behold I will allure her, and will lead her into the wilderness: and I will speak to her heart." (2:14) We must allow for some solitude in our lives where we can truly listen to God. Perhaps that is a few minutes in silence in the favorite place in my house. Perhaps it is visiting the chapel where Jesus is present in the Blessed Sacrament. Perhaps it's going on a hike to the incredible wilderness that surrounds us. Where is the Lord leading you? Do you ask? Are you open to Him leading you up the mountain where He can speak to your heart?

I'll be praying for you while on retreat and look forward to sharing more when I return. In one sense, we don't go alone into a hermitage. We carry our intentions, the people we love and care for into the space of prayer. Even though we are not speaking, we are communicating on the level of spirit. God is present everywhere and connects according to the love in our hearts.

One spirituality that was birthed in solitude is written about by the Desert Fathers. A saying of theirs that I refer to often is simple and anyone can follow it. It goes like this: A hermit was disturbed by some tempting thought. He went to the abba, an experienced hermit and asked for advice. The elder said, "Go, sit in your cell, and your cell will give you peace." When we are restless, sometimes it's simply because we haven't taken time to pray. God is calling us to pray, to communicate with Him who is love. Don't we long for that?

Blessings from Marymount from February 2nd to the 16th. Please say a prayer for me as well. ~ Fr Ed
