WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth; O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

Cf. Ps 66 (65): 1-2

"Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke!"

When I read this I must in all humility respond that 'yes, Lord, I am indeed foolish and slow of heart to believe! But I beg you, have mercy and help me to believe with certainty, confidence, and haste.'

Although his words are harsh, we see here - and in all of the encounters between the Lord and his disciples - His persistence, patience, and gentleness. He knew that they and we need help and support to understand that his defeat on the cross was the foundation of His victory

- a victory that is total!

Here we are, more than 2000 years later, with much more Church teaching and examples of the saints available to us and we yet struggle with what He teaches of defeat leading to triumph.

In Christ we are reminded of the patience we ought to have for ourselves and others. It takes time and experience to grow in the faith - whether we are new or experienced Catholics!

May we use this Easter time to ask for the Lord's help, especially in our preparation for Pentecost, that like those of the disciples, our hearts may burn for Him!

This Saturday we celebrate the feast of Saint Mark the Evangelist. To be perfectly honest, the primary thing I remember about this gospel is that it is the shortest! But what is truly most notable is the tone: Saint Mark is forceful! For this reason, the symbol of this gospel is a lion.

As we offer our gratitude to the Lord for the work of Saint Mark, we consider the great opportunity we have in our time: the availability of the Word of God....do you read the scriptures daily? If not, why not? And why not start with the Gospel of Mark - an excellent beginning to a new (great) habit!

Parishioners will often ask about the rules of the Church. Of course, we know about the teaching of the Church (available in the Catechism of the Catholic Church), the law of the Church (available in the Code of Canon Law), and liturgical law (available in the general instructions and rubrics of each particular ritual.

Additionally, there are policies of our archdiocese, promulgated by our archbishop, titled 'Many Gifts, One Spirit'. There are policies for every aspect of parish life. If you'd like, I invite you to read them, accessible at the archdiocese website:

¿POR QUÉ LOS CATÓLICOS HACEN ESO?

- Padre Jacob Maurer

Aclamad al Señor, tierra entera: tocad en honor de su nombre, cantad himnos a su gloria. Aleluya.

"¡Qué insensatos son ustedes y qué duros de corazón para creer todo lo anunciado por los profetas!"

Lo leo y tengo que responder, '¡si Señor, de hecho soy duro de corazón y insensato! Pero, Te pido: ten misericordia de mí y ayúdame a creer con certeza, confianza, y con prisa.'

Aunque sus palabras son fuertes, veamos aquí - y en todos los encuentros entre el Señor y sus discípulos - su persistencia, paciencia, y suave bondad. Él sabía que ellos y nosotros necesitamos ayuda y apoyo para entender que su derrota en la cruz era fundamental para Su victoria.... ¡y que Su victoria era completa!

Aquí estamos, más que dos mil años a posteriori, con muchas más enseñanzas de la Iglesia y ejemplos de los santos disponibles y incluso nosotras luchamos con sus enseñanzas.

En Cristo se nos recuerda de la paciencia debemos tener hacia nosotros mismos y hacia los demás. Se necesita tiempo y experiencia para crecer en la fe, ¡independientemente de si somos cristianos nuevos o antiguos!

Que usamos este tiempo Pascual para pedir la ayuda del Señor, especialmente en nuestra preparación para el Pentecostés, ¡que nuestros corazones también ardan para Él!

El sábado celebramos la fiesta de san Marco el evangelista. Para ser perfectamente honesto, la primera casa que recuerdo de este evangelio es que es lo más corto. Pero lo que disfruto lo más de su evangelio es el tono - ¡san Marco es fuerte! Y es por esta razón que su símbolo es un león.

Cf. Ps 66 (65): 1-2

Como ofrecemos gracias al Señor por el trabajo de su santo, que consideramos la gran oportunidad tenemos hoy en día: la disponibilidad de la Palabra de Dios. ¿Leas las escrituras diario? Si no, ¿por qué no? ¡El evangelio de san Marco es un lugar excelente a empezar el hábito!

A veces miembros de nuestras parroquias preguntan de las reglas de la Iglesia. Por supuesto, tenemos enseñanzas de la Iglesia (accesible por el Catecismo Católica de la Iglesia Católica), las leyes de la Iglesia (accesible por El Código de Derecho Canónico), y las leyes litúrgicas de cualquier rito estamos hablando (accesible por las instrucciones generales y las rúbricas del sacramento o rito).

Sin embargo, hay también políticas de nuestra arquidiócesis, dado por la autoridad del arzobispo - son titulado "Muchos dones, un solo espíritu". Hay políticas para cada aspecto de la vida de unas parroquias. Si quieres, les invito leerlo por el sitio arquidiocesano: archseattle.org

Dear friends,

Last weekend I shared with you the difficult realization that the Queen of Angels adoration chapel must closed due to issues relating to Church law and archdiocesan policy. I write today to give some insight into those issues. Before all else, I want to emphasize that no one did anything deliberately wrong. While we now move to correct them, errors are not sins and we need not feel guilt or shame for what is otherwise wholesome and sincere devotion to our Lord in the Eucharist.

Understanding the teaching & law of the Church and archdiocesan policy

There are three particular areas for our consideration:

- access to the tabernacle (ie, opening & closing) and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament is to restricted to clergy and a few laity delegated by the pastor, typically sacristans and occasionally an extraordinary minister of holy communion (see Redemptionis Sacramentum #137)
- that the Eucharist may never be left unattended when exposed in a monstrance (Many Gifts, One Spirit: Liturgical Design and Construction #AF 134, Redemptionis Sacramentum #130, 138)
- that in our archdiocese, adoration chapels must be distinct and separate from the church itself (see Many Gifts, One Spirit: Liturgical Design and Construction #AF 134, Built of Living Stones #78)

The problem(s)

In our case at Queen of Angels, the adoration chapel tabernacle has been accessible to every visitor with the door code (itself unchanged for at least two years), with the key to the tabernacle left in the lock, open-able by all who come in, and the Eucharist directly accessible – anyone with the code could take the Eucharist away. Additionally, this reservation & exposition of the Blessed Sacrament is sporadic at best; the Eucharist is unattended most hours. Finally, the chapel is set up in the narthex of the church, just a few feet from the main entrance into the nave (body) of the church.

Solutions in the short and long term

As I mentioned at Masses last weekend, we have a plan! In the short term, we are working on providing access to the nave (body) of the church via the code-controlled side door. Parishioners will be invited to get the new code from the office and will be able to pray before the tabernacle at any hour of any day. In the long term, we will consider as a community if and how we might have exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on special occasions, a set day of the week, or more often.

In his encyclical Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Pope John Paul II taught that “(i)t is the responsibility of Pastors to encourage, also by their personal witness, the practice of Eucharistic adoration, and exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in particular, as well as prayer of adoration before Christ present under the Eucharistic species.” (25) Let us use this opportunity to renew – together – our devotion to the Lord in adoration before Him in our churches!

Sincerely,

Father Jacob Maurer

Queridos amigos,

Recientemente compartí con ustedes que la capilla de adoración Reina de los Ángeles debe cerrar debido a cuestiones relacionadas con el derecho canónico y las políticas arquidiocesanas. Les escribo hoy para ofrecerles algunas aclaraciones sobre dichas cuestiones. Ante todo, quiero enfatizar que nadie ha cometido ningún acto deliberadamente incorrecto. Los errores no son pecados; no debemos sentir culpa ni vergüenza por lo que constituye una devoción sana y sincera.

Comprender la enseñanza y la ley de la Iglesia, así como la normativa arquidiocesana

Hay tres áreas específicas que debemos considerar:

- el acceso al sagrario (su apertura y cierre) y la exposición del Santísimo Sacramento deben restringirse al clero y a unos pocos laicos delegados por el párroco —típicamente los sacristanes y, ocasionalmente, algún ministro extraordinario de la Sagrada Comunión— (Redemptionis Sacramentum, #137)
- la Eucaristía nunca debe dejarse sin vigilancia cuando es expuesta en un ostensorio (Muchos dones, un solo espíritu: Construcción y renovación litúrgicas #AF 134; Redemptionis Sacramentum, #130 y #138)
- en nuestra arquidiócesis, las capillas de adoración deben ser distintas y estar separadas de la iglesia propiamente dicha (Muchos dones, un solo espíritu: Construcción y renovación litúrgicas AF 134; Built of Living Stones #78).

Los problemas

En Reina de los Ángeles, el tabernáculo de la capilla de adoración ha estado accesible a cualquier visitante que dispusiera del código de la puerta (código que, por cierto, no se ha modificado en los últimos dos años); además, la llave del tabernáculo se dejaba puesta en la cerradura, de modo que cualquiera que entrara podía abrirlo y acceder directamente a la Eucaristía, lo que permitía a cualquier persona con el código llevársela consigo. Asimismo, esta reserva y exposición del Santísimo Sacramento es, en el mejor de los casos, esporádica; la mayor parte del tiempo, la Eucaristía permanece sin vigilancia. Por último, la capilla se encuentra habilitada en el nártex de la iglesia, solo unos pasos de la entrada principal a la nave (cuerpo central) del templo.

Soluciones a corto y largo plazo

Tal como mencioné durante las Misas del fin de semana pasado, ¡ya tenemos un plan! A corto plazo, estamos trabajando para facilitar el acceso a la nave (cuerpo central) de la iglesia a través de la puerta lateral, la cual funciona mediante un código de acceso, que se les harán posible que los feligreses orar ante el sagrario a cualquier hora. A largo plazo, evaluaremos en comunidad si podríamos organizar la exposición del Santísimo Sacramento en ocasiones especiales, en un día fijo de la semana o con mayor frecuencia.

En su encíclica Ecclesia de Eucharistia, el Papa Juan Pablo II enseñó que “(c)orresponde a los Pastores animar, incluso con el testimonio personal, el culto eucarístico, particularmente la exposición del Santísimo Sacramento y la adoración de Cristo presente bajo las especies eucarísticas.” (25)
¡Aprovechemos esta oportunidad para renovar —juntos— nuestra devoción al Señor, adorándolo ante Él en nuestras iglesias!

Atentamente,
Padre Jacob Maurer, párroco
