WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

Cf. Est 4: 17

"The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.", we all proclaimed as today's responsorial psalm - and so said the Lord through the prophet Isaiah in the first reading. But through Christ, the vineyard of the Lord has been entrusted to all who follow Christ. In fact, there is no one who is not invited to His vineyard!

How do we demonstrate this in our actions? On the contrary, do we not often show the opposite of welcome to the stranger? Are there not persons who we refuse to invite into our midst, into our family, into our company?

In this, we emulate not Christ but those tenants ("those wretched men") that separated themselves from and ultimately killed those sent by the master.

Just as we have received the invitation to share in the life and work of the Body of Christ, so we are called to offer (and proclaim!) the same invitation to all. May we work to ensure that all are welcome in the vineyard - and house - of the Lord.

On Wednesday, October 7, we celebrate the memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary. In 1212, Saint Dominic de Guzman had a vision of the Virgin giving him a rosary in response to his prayer for help against the Albigenian heresy. Five hundred years later, the Pope asked the Church to pray the rosary for victory against the invading Turks. On October 7, 1571, the victory was won and the feast of Our Lady of Victory was established. Some years later, the feast was renamed Our Lady of the Rosary - which we celebrate to this day!

In two weeks, we will kick off our annual "Partners in Excellence" campaign for Queen of Angels school. Established in 1992, this campaign to support our operating budget, tuition assistance, and capital projects.

In addition to financial support, please pray for the success of this campaign (perhaps offering a rosary, as was done in 1571!). As we celebrate the centennial (100 years) of our school, may God bless our good work such that it may continue for many years more!

¿POR QUÉ LOS CATÓLICOS HACEN ESO?

- Padre Jacob Maurer

A tu poder, Señor, está sometido el mundo entero; nadie puede oponerse a ti.
Tú creaste el cielo y la tierra y las maravillas todas que existen bajo el cielo.
Tú eres Señor del universo.

Cf. Est 4: 17

"La viña del Señor es la casa de Israel" - así que respondimos en el salmo de hoy, y así dijo el Señor por el profeta Isaías. Pero por Jesús, la viña del Señor ha sido confiado a todos que siguen a Cristo. De hecho, ¿no hay nadie que no es invitado a reunirse a la viña del Señor!

¿Como mostramos este hecho en nuestras acciones? Al contrario, ¿mostramos el opuesto en nuestra negativa a dar la bienvenida al extranjero? ¿Acaso no hay personas a las que todavía nos negamos a invitar a nuestro seno, a nuestra familia, a nuestra compañía?

En esto, no emulamos a Cristo, sino a los viñadores (¡"esos desalmados"!) que se apartaron y finalmente mataron a los enviados por el amo.

Así como hemos recibido la invitación compartir en la vida y trabajo del Cuerpo de Cristo, también estamos llamado ofrecer (¡y proclamar!) la misma invitación a todos. Trabajemos para asegurar que todos sean bienvenidos en la viña - y la casa - del Señor.

En miércoles, 7 octubre, celebramos la memoria de Bienaventurada Virgen María del Rosario. En el año 1212, San Dominic de Guzman tuvo una visión de la Virgin dándole un rosario después de su oración pidiendo ayuda para combatir la herejía albigense. Quinientos años después, el Papa pidió la Iglesia orar el rosario para el éxito de una batalla contra la invasión turca. En 7 octubre 1571, los turcos fueron derrotados y la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de las Victorias se estableció. Algunos años después, la fiesta fue renombrada Bienaventurada Virgen María del Rosario' - ¡que celebramos hoy en día!

En dos semanas, comenzamos nuestra campaña anual "Socios en la Excelencia" en nombre de la escuela Reina de los Ángeles. Establecida en 1992, esta campaña de recaudación de fondo apoya el presupuesto operativo, ayuda para la matrícula y proyectos de capital.

Además del apoyo financiero, les pedimos que oren por el éxito de esta campaña. Al celebrar el centenario (¡100 años!) de nuestra escuela, que Dios bendiga esta buena labor para que continúe por muchos años más.
