CARMELITE CORNER OF THE OLYMPICS HOLY EXAMPLE OF THE MONTH

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, OCD, (aka The Little Flower) was born in France in 1873. Her parents, Louis and Zélie Martin, were very devout and would later become the first married couple canonized together by the Catholic Church. Thérèse entered Carmel at the age of 15, joining three of her siblings who'd also entered the Discalced Carmelite monastery near their home. Her life in Carmel was brief and lived out in obscurity. She died at the age of 24, having suffered painfully with tuberculosis for a year and a half. Her last words were: "My God, I love you!" It was only after her death that Thérèse's autobiography, Story of a Soul, written under orders from her prioress, was published. Her testimony revealed a profound but accessible spirituality which she called the "Little Way," wherein even the simplest act could inspire holiness when done with great love. Thérèse's book sold in the millions, with copies produced in dozens of languages. Her written legacy was deemed so profound that she was later declared to be a Doctor (teacher) of the Catholic Church.

Words of wisdom: "Holiness consists simply in doing God's will, and being just what God wants us to be." — Saint Thérèse of Lisieux, OCD

PORT ANGELES KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Congratulations to Grand Knight Armando Gonzalez and the Knights of Columbus Council 2260 in Port Angeles. The State of Washington Knights of Columbus has awarded them with the Double Star Council award. This is a great and rare honor recognizing their accomplishments during the past year.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS DISTRICT NEWS

They will be distributed to needy children across the Olympic Peninsula. Thanks to both the Port Angeles and Sequim Councils as well as to our parishioners who contributed a great amount of money.

SEQUIM ST. VINCENT DE PAUL GIVING TREE

Sequim St. Vincent de Paul will be sponsoring the annual Giving Tree for needy children in our community this Christmas. Might you be willing to help with some of the “behind the scenes” tasks for this heartwarming ministry?

We are in need of a few people to:

- Contact 3-7 families, between Nov 1-11, from a list given to you, to find out if they would like to participate.
- December 14-16, check back with those who are participating, to verify delivery time/place for the gifts for their children.
- Help prepare gifts for transport after any Mass on December 5, 6, 12 or 13.
- With a partner, deliver gifts to 3-5 families on December 18.

If you can help with any of these tasks, please call or text Marilyn Walsh at (360) 775-8075.

Thank you for considering being part of this project. Your assistance would be greatly appreciated!

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness, O God of Israel.

Cf. 130 (129): 3-4

Well, here we are - the topic no one likes to hear about: dress codes. Every time this comes up, there's practically a line down the middle of the church between those who smugly smirk at the folks on the other side who quietly (or not-so-quietly) resent being judged by what they wear instead of who they are.

So let's not talk about clothing. Let's talk about what the "wedding garment" of Jesus' parable actually means: repentance, change of heart & mind, a willingness to submit ourselves wholly & entirely without reserve to God.

Clothing, as it turns out, has nothing to do with anything!

How many of us truly, wholly, and without reservation submit ourselves to Christ? A sure sign that there are parts of our heart yet held back is when we immediately go on the defensive, proclaiming our own goodness and good works - or presuming upon Christ's goodness - rather than proclaiming our immediate & lifelong need for repentance and the merciful love of Christ in which we place our hope.

Of course we ought to dress up for Mass and other liturgies - we wear fine clothing not out of pride or arrogance but to reflect our gratitude as in thanksgiving we raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.

"I am writing to all the churches to let it be known that I will gladly die for God if only you do not stand in my way. . . . If I am condemned to suffer, I will take it that you wish me well. If my case is postponed, I can only think that you wish me harm." - so said Saint Ignatius of Antioch, bishop and martyr, in a letter to the faithful during his last days. He desired that his actions echoed his faith and that his life & death witnessed to Christ.

Through his example and intercession, may we also bear witness to the Lord in all we do.

This Saturday, we celebrated the rite of entrance into full communion with Russ Brown. Through his profession of faith, the imposition of hands, and the anointing with the sacred chrism, he joined the Catholic faith. We congratulate and welcome Russ!

On Sunday, we celebrated the combined rites of acceptance and welcome. In these rites, those who are preparing for their baptism are accepted into the order of catechumens and we welcome those who are themselves preparing to enter into full communion. For our part, we commit to praying for them - daily! - as they continue with their preparations.

¿POR QUÉ LOS CATÓLICOS HACEN ESO?

- Padre Jacob Maurer

Si llevas cuenta de los delitos, Señor, ¿quien podrá resistir?
Pero de ti procede el perdón, Dios de Israel.

Cf. 130 (129): 3-4

De nuevo estamos enfrentado con un sujeto incomodo: la vestidura apropiada. Cada vez hablamos de esto, hay una gran división entre los que juzgan con aire de suficiencia a los que interiormente le molesta ser juzgados por lo que visten (o no visten) en lugar de por quienes son.

Entonces, que no hablemos de la vestidura. En cambio, hablemos de lo que "vestido con traje de fiesta" en la parábola de Jesús significa: la penitencia, el cambio de corazón y mente, la voluntad a someternos totalmente y sin reservación a Dios.

¡Resulta que la vestidura no importa!

¿Cuántos de nosotros verdaderamente, completamente, sin reservación nos sometemos a Cristo? En señal seguro que hay partes de nuestro corazón todavía reservado es que estamos mediamente defensivo, proclamando nuestra bondad y buenas obras - o nuestra presunción de la bondad de Cristo - en lugar de proclamando nuestra necesidad de penitencia y el amor misericordioso de Cristo, en que pongamos nuestra esperanza.

Por supuesto debemos vestarnos bien para Misa y otras liturgias - nos vestimos no por orgullo ni arrogancia sino mostrar nuestra gratitud y gracias como alzaremos la copa de la salvación, invocando el nombre del Señor.

"Yo voy escribiendo a todas las Iglesias, y a todas les encarezco lo mismo: que moriré de buena gana por Dios con tal que vosotros no me lo impidáis. . . . Si sufro el martirio, es señal de que me queréis bien; de lo contrario, es que me habéis aborrecido." - este dijo san Ignacio de Antioquía, obispo y mártir en una carta a los fieles en sus últimos días. Él quería que sus acciones coincidieran con su fe, que su vida y muerte sea un testigo a Cristo.

Por su ejemplo e intercesión, que nosotros también demos testimonio de Cristo en todas las cosas.

El sábado, celebramos el rito de la admisión en la plena comunión con Russ Brown. Mediante su profesión de fe, la imposición de manos, y la unción con la sagrada crisma, se une a la fe católica. ¡Felicitemos y demos la bienvenida a Russ!

El domingo, celebramos los ritos combinados de aceptación y bienvenida. En estos ritos, los que están preparando para su bautismo entran el orden de catecúmenos y damos la bienvenida a los que son bautizados y esperan entrar en comunión completa con la Iglesia.

Respondamos orando por ellos - ¡diariamente! - mientras continúan con sus preparativos.
