WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honor of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

Almighty ever-living God,
by whose gift we venerate in one celebration
the merits of all the Saints,
bestow on us, we pray,
through the prayers of so many intercessors,
an abundance of the reconciliation with you for which we earnestly long.

- from the collect of today's Mass

The last words of today's collect caught my attention: "for which we earnestly long" - causing me to ask myself whether I truly long (to say nothing of earnestly!) for God's mercy.

My first reaction is to say 'of course!' But what do my actions and decisions in life actually communicate? Is there evident an earnest longing for God.... or do I simply offer empty words about the idea of mercy, without the fervor to receive and respond to the Lord?

The saints had this fervor - we can see it in the testimony of their lives. Choose whatever saint, read about their lives and works - none of them went unchanged, although that sometimes involved hard lessons!

May we petition the saints for their help - not only today but every day - that we may join them in heaven, eternally praising the Lord for the abundance of His mercy.

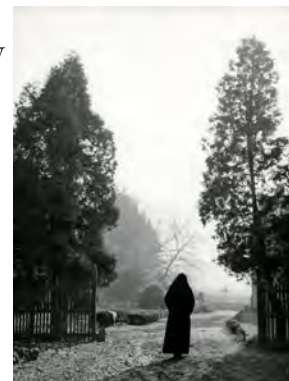

As we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, it is well for us to consider our friendship with the saints. Although we are not (yet!) with them in heaven, they are interceding even now for us (Rev. 5:8). For our part, we can - and ought! - to draw near to them through meditation and prayer, studying their lives and example, asking them for help and support.

If you don't know where to start, consider your confirmation saint or the saint of the day of your baptism - but there are so many saints to discover and get to know. I also recommend one of my favorite books: the Picture Book of Saints (Catholicsupply.com).

This year, to celebrate the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls - November 2), we will not only have masses in our churches (see the bulletin for details), but also special masses in our local cemeteries! In the central region, this will be at Mount Angeles Memorial Park at 4 pm. In the east region, at our parish cemetery at 5 pm.

Each year, the Church takes the entire day to pray for our beloved dead - but there is something especially appropriate about praying in the place where they are laid to rest - I hope you'll be able to join in one of the masses!

¿POR QUÉ LOS CATÓLICOS HACEN ESO?

- Padre Jacob Maurer

Alegrémonos todos en el Señor al celebrare este día de fiesta en honor de todos los santos. Los ángeles se alegran de esta solemnidad y alaban a una al Hijo de Dios.

Dios todopoderoso y eterno,
que nos has otorgado venerar en una misma celebración los méritos de todos los santos, concédenos, por esta multitude de intercesores,
la deseada abundancia de tu misericordia.

- de la oración colecta de la misa de hoy

Las últimas palabras de la oración colecta me llamaron la atención - "la deseada abundancia de tu misericordia" - y me causó preguntarme: ¿deseo realmente la misericordia de Dios?

Mi primera reacción es
decir que sí, ¡por supuesto!
Pero ¿qué le comunican
realmente mis acciones y decisiones en la vida?

¿Pueden ver - Dios y otros
- un deseo orientado al
Señor..... o simplemente
digo palabras vacías del idea de la misericordia sin el fervor de recibirla y responderla?

Los santos tenían fervor - podemos verla en el testimonio de sus vidas. Elija cualquier santo y santa, lea sus palabras y de sus decisiones - nadie de ellos no era cambiados, ¡aunque a veces necesitaban recibir lecciones dificultades!
Creo que cada uno de nosotros queremos su profunda devoción..... pero a veces tememos lo será necesario obtenerla.

Que pidamos la ayuda de todos los santos - no solamente hoy, pero cada día - que podemos unirnos a ellos en los cielos para dar gloria a Dios por la abundancia de su misericordia.

Mientras celebramos la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, es bien consideramos nuestra amistad con los santos.
Aunque no estamos con ellos
en los cielos (¡todavía!), ellos están intercediendo para nosotros (Apocalipsis 5:8). Por nuestra parte, podemos - ¡y debemos! - acercarnos a ellos por meditación y oración, estudiando sus vidas y ejemplo, pidiendo su ayuda y apoyo.

Si no sepas donde empezar, te animo considerar su santo patrón de confirmación o del día de su baptizo - pero hay tantas santas para descubrir y conocer. Unos de mis favoritos libros des el Libro de los Santos (CatholicSupply.com).

Este año, para celebra la Conmemoración de Todos los Fieles Difuntos (2 noviembre), no solamente tendremos misas en nuestras iglesias (hay detalles en el boletín), sino también misas especiales en los cementerios locales: Mount Angeles Memorial Park, a las 4 pm y el cementerio de Santa Maria a las 5 pm.

Cada año la Iglesia pasa un día completo para
orar por nuestros amados muertos, ¡pero hay algo
especial hacerlo en el lugar donde están sepultado! Le damos gracias a Harper Ridgeview por su apoyo.
¡Ojalá que puedas unirte a nosotros allí para la misa!
