Jesus said to his disciples:

Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come.

It is like a man traveling abroad. He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch.

Do you have a question for the pastor?

Please call 1-360-912-7339 x250 and leave a voicemail.

Giving Thanks!

Olympic Peninsula Catholic would like to thank all those who helped at the Community Thanksgiving Dinner, especially Knights of Columbus Council 2260 who prepared an unbelievable amount of ham and turkeys, as well as all the sides.

PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL PARISHIONER INPUT

Olympic Peninsula Parishes is currently seeking parishioner input developing our identity as a new canonical parish!

Please consider the following questions:

Question 1: Who is God calling us to become as a new parish? What is our vision for that?

Question 2: What new groups of people do we want to focus on or prioritize moving forward? Who have we not been serving?

Question 3: What new ministries and or programs do we want to start, or what existing ministries should we expand to fulfill our vision of who we want to become? What existing ministries is our God calling us to reconsider or leave behind? Is there anything we should stop doing or say "no" to so that we may say "yes" to new ministries?

Download the response form at opcatholic.org or clallamcatholic.org and fill in your thoughts so they may be considered as we move through the Partners in the Gospel process. You can either drop them at your parish office, in the collection basket, or mail them to 209 W 11th St. Port Angeles WA 98362.

BOOKKEEPER POSITION

Olympic Peninsula Catholic is looking for a bookkeeper to join our team. This is a full-time, benefited position.

3 years or more bookkeeping experience preferred. QuickBooks, Excel, Microsoft 365, experience is a must.

If you are interested in working for the church, please contact John Nolan at admin@clallamcatholic.org or 360-452-2351 Ext 204

Sacramental Life

RETURNING CATHOLICS Have you been away from the Church for some time? Are you thinking about coming home? Jesus waits for you with arms open wide! Please contact the parish office for more info.

READY TO BECOME CATHOLIC? Whether you're just curious, or are ready to jump in and get started, please contact the parish office and we'll get you in touch with the right folks. You are welcome here.

WHY DO CATHOLICS DO THAT?

- Father Jacob Maurer

To you, I lift up my soul, O my God. In you, I have trusted; let me not be put to shame.
Nor let my enemies exult over me; and let none who hope in you be put to shame.

Cf. Ps 25 (24): 1-3

"Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved."

With these words of the responsorial psalm, we all joined in prayer this Sunday, the first Sunday of Advent. Did you notice the theme throughout the psalm and readings of our shared sonship/daughterhood, of God being our father? Yet at the same time, we are invited to reflect on how we squander that inheritance - that with hardened hearts, we have become unclean, sinful, like polluted rags and withered leaves, delivered into our guilt.

Prefer though I would to focus on God's fatherhood and my sonship, we can not receive salvation without the action of that we proclaim in the psalm: that we turn to God, which necessarily involves recognizing and turning away from our sins.

In every penitential season (yes, Advent has a penitential character, akin to Lent!), we may be tempted to decide for ourselves what parts of our lives we will focus on improving. Laudable though this may be, this often empowers us to avoid those less comfortable areas where we most need God. As we begin the Advent season, consider instead inviting the Lord to illuminate where in your heart and life He most desires to enter in, to purify you, to draw you closer to Himself in intimate friendship. May we truly mean what we have today prayed, allowing God to turn us to see His face.

The first feast of the Advent season lands on Monday, December 30 - the feast of Saint Andrew the Apostle. Among the Churches of the East, he is reverenced as the 'First-Chosen', as he was the first to recognize Jesus as the Messiah, leaving John the Baptist to follow Him - and introducing his brother Peter to the Lord.

Like his brother, he requested to be crucified in a way distinct (thus the X-shaped cross) from the Lord in recognition of his own unworthiness to be crucified in the manner of Christ. May we likewise recognize our own need for the Lord and unite ourselves to Him!

This week, on December 3rd, we will once again be hosting chancery employees (who work directly for the archbishop) here on the Olympic Peninsula. This year we are welcoming members of the Human Resources and Benefits & Payroll offices. Thank you to all who have contributed to their welcome baskets and/or joined in praying a novena for one (or more!) of them.

Especially this week, please remember in your prayers the many members of these two offices, thanking God for their service & ministry to parishes and parishioners across our entire archdiocese!

¿POR QUÉ LOS CATÓLICOS HACEN ESO?

- Padre Jacob Maurer

A ti levanto mi alma, Dios mío, en ti confío; no quede yo defraudado; que no triunfen de mí mis enemigos, pues los que esperan en ti no quedan

Cf. Ps 25 (24): 1-3

"Señor, muéstranos tu favor y sálvanos."

Con estas palabras del salmo responsorial nos unimos en oración este domingo, el primero domingo de Adviento. ¿Te diste cuenta del tema del salmo y las lecturas sobre que somos hijos de Dios, de Dios como nuestro padre? Al mismo tiempo, estamos invitado considerar las maneras en que desperdiciamos nuestra herencia - con corazones endurecidos, que estábamos marchitos, como las hojas, que nuestras culpas nos arrebataban, como el viento.

Aunque prefiero enfocar en la paternidad de Dios y mi filiación, no podemos recibir la salvación sin la acción que proclamemos en el salmo: ¡que reconozcamos que necesitamos el Señor salvarnos!

En cada tiempo penitencial (si, ¡Adviento tiene un tema penitencial, como la Cuaresma!), nosotras podemos ser tentadas decidir que partes de nuestras vidas vamos a enfocarnos para mejorar. Aunque esto pueda ser loable, a veces elegimos así para evitar las áreas donde más necesitamos el Señor. En esta empieza del Adviento, considera haciendo una invitación deliberada a Dios, que Él ilumina donde en su corazón y vida Él quiere entrar, purificar, y atraerte más cerca de Él en una amistad íntima. Que sinceramente intentar lo que hemos orado hoy, permitiendo nuestra Salvador - nuestra Padre - mostrarnos su favor y salvarnos.

La primera fiesta del tiempo Adviento es lunes, 30 diciembre - la fiesta de San Andrea el Apostle. Entre las Iglesia del Oest, es llamado 'Primero-Elegido' porque era el primero reconocer Jesús como mesías, dejando a Juan el Baptista para sigue a Jesús - también introduciendo Pedro a Jesús.

Como su hermano, Andrea pidió que su crucifixión sea distinta de lo que Cristo, reconociendo su indignidad de ser crucificado en la misma manera del Señor. ¡Que nosotros también reconocer nuestra necesidad de Dios y unirnos a Él!

Esta semana, el jueves - 3 diciembre - de nuevo nosotras estaremos hospedando los empleados de la cancillería (los que trabajan directamente para el arzobispo) aquí en la Península Olímpica. Este año, damos bienvenida a miembros de las oficinas de Recursos Humanos y de Beneficios & Nómina.

Especialmente esta semana, ¡por favor recuerda en sus oraciones los miembros de estas dos oficinas, dando gracias a Dios por su servicio y ministerio a parroquias y parroquianos en toda nuestra arquidiócesis!

ANGELIC BAZAAR

We had 5 ministries participate this year and raised and estimated $5,000 for their projects and outreach! St. Francis Guild is already planning the Christmas Seminarian support project, FIAT has sent their proceeds to the Mary Bloom Center in Peru, and St. Vincent de Paul has provided Thanksgiving meals to neighbors who struggle to afford dinner. The lunches served were fantastic!

Thank you to all who donated, shopped, and worked over the weekend!

CONGRATULATIONS!

We would like to congratulate Deanndra & Preston who celebrated a sacramental marriage on Sunday, November 8 at the 8:30 Mass!
